First paragraph:

State you are and why you are writing this “book”. Make this first paragraph an introduction to this book. State your age, grade level, your school, your teacher’s name who assigned this to you, but do all of this in your own unique way within this first paragraph. Make this writing your own and make it sound uniquely like YOU!

Other details that you should include in your middle paragraphs in your own way:

My birth name including middle name:

Birthdate:

Where was I born:

Mother’s name and birth place:

Father’s name and birth place:

Other parents’ names (if you have more):

Siblings’ names and years they were born or ages:

Places (cities/states/countries) I have lived and when I moved to those places:

Schools that I have gone to, about how long I went to each, and where they are located:

Things that I enjoy doing or that I participate in:

Final paragraph:

State where you currently live, who you live with (include everyone who lives in your home), if you have any pets in your home (include their names), repeat your age and grade level and the reason that you are writing this “book”.
